WELCOME REMARKS*Atty. Alberto Jesus T. MuyotChief Executive Officer,
Save the Children Philippines*

Good afternoon, everyone! A pleasant welcome to both our current and future partners in saving children in the Philippines.

The past year brought what is possibly our biggest challenge yet: the COVID-19 pandemic. Indeed, it has made the conduct of our programs and services more difficult, but because of our hardworking staff, and the unwavering support of our partners, we were still able to deliver.

This spirit of partnership is something we are definitely thankful for—the hardships brought about by the pandemic, and other emergencies such as the Taal Volcano eruption and Typhoons Rolly and Ulysses, showed how big an impact we can make if we all work together.

We know that you, our corporate partners, also faced challenges of your own... yet, you remained committed to addressing the needs and protecting the rights of the most vulnerable children and their families. And for this, we are forever grateful.

Thus, with your help, we reached over three million children in 2020 through our initiatives, where we provided lifesaving supplies and services to the most affected areas in the country. Through our innovative programs like Project ARAL, we delivered learning materials to children so they can continue learning from the safety of their homes. And of course, we still delivered our other programs to help children survive, learn, and be protected.

This year is a milestone for us: we are celebrating our 40th year in the Philippines. As we move forward to more years of working for and with children, especially the most deprived and marginalized, the role of the private sector and corporate partners is ever expanding. Your leadership and active participation are crucial in accelerating progress for children and creating a lasting change in their lives.

We look forward to our partnership to ensure that children continue to learn remotely and to bring them safely back to school, and to help ensure their safety and well-being before, during and after disasters. With our strengthened partnership, we will surely generate breakthrough solutions to sustainable impact for children and their families, leading us closer to the achievement of the sustainable development goals by the year 2030.

Together, we can achieve so much more. We look forward to working with you to ensure children have a healthy, safe, and successful future ahead of them. Maraming salamat po!

MESSAGE FROM
THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES
Ms. Margarita Delgado
Board Chair,
Save the Children Philippines

Members of the Board of Trustees of Save the Children Philippines, Albert Muyot CEO of SCP, his management team and all the staff of Save the Children Philippines, all corporate partners and representatives of corporations who are not yet partners, our ambassadors, the children from the communities we serve: thank you for making the time to join us today as we celebrate our Corporate Partners' Day.

The UN informs us that children are not the face of this pandemic, but they risk being amongst the biggest victims. All children, of all ages and in all countries are being affected, in particular by socioeconomic impacts, and in some cases, by mitigation measures that may inadvertently do more harm than good. This is a universal crisis, and for some children, the impact will be lifelong. Moreover, the harmful effects of this pandemic will not be distributed equally. They are expected to be the most damaging for children in the poorest countries, and in the poorest neighborhoods, and for those in already disadvantaged or vulnerable situations.

This afternoon, we honor those private companies who have stepped up to be part of the solution to this unprecedented human crisis. Your courage to confront this reality, your generosity of spirit, and your compassion for the most vulnerable of our society truly sets you apart. Your partnership with Save the Children Philippines is addressing maternal newborn child health and nutrition, strengthening newborn care, improving the nutrition of children 6-12 years old, funding the emergency responses to COVID-19, is developing an ecosystem for comprehensive school safety in the Philippines, and so, so much more.

You are all truly the heroes in our story. Through your support, you bring hope where there is utter despair, strength where there is exhaustion, and light where there is darkness. You give our children a fighting chance, and we remain deeply grateful.

Maraming maraming salamat po.

CLOSING REMARKS
Ms. Naida Pasion
Chief Business Development Officer,
Save the Children Philippines

Good afternoon, everyone!

In the space of less than two hours, we achieved quite a lot.

We came to know each other a bit better, based on how partners helped to transform the lives of the most deprived children in the country, through our awards of recognition; we heard directly from the children themselves on what pains them and what makes them fulfilled; we discovered, or rediscovered, as the case may be, some of the solutions that impact children's lives, such as preparedness and quick response promised by Fund to SAVE; the spirit of employees giving back through Give to Save; children continuing to learn from home through Project ARAL and enjoying a nurturing environment through Mapagkalingang Tahanan; we appreciated the role of strategic direction and governance through our Corporate Advisory Council; and much more.

Thus, together, we are well on our way to achieving our breakthroughs for children: that they survive, learn through a quality education, and are protected from all forms of violence.

And you, our corporate partners, have made this difficult mission possible.

We thank our ambassadors, Xia Vigor, Katarina Rodriguez, Ria Atayde, and Liza Soberano for their vigorous engagement.

We are grateful for the wisdom and direction from our Corporate Advisory Council, and please allow me to do a little pat on the back to our Save the Children colleagues, led by our CEO, Atty. Albert Muyot.

Thank you, all, for your time and support!

Mabuhay tayong lahat!
